

May 5, 1949

A. W. Mallett

Services for Mrs. A. W. Mallett, a highly respected pioneer of Groton, who passed away at Groton, Monday, April 25, following a week's illness, were conducted at 2:00 o'clock at the Methodist church in Groton, by Rev. Frederick G. MacKenzie, Methodist church officiat-

Mallett was laid to rest in the cemetery, beside the remains of her husband, who preceded her in death ten years ago. Pall bearers were six sons, Jerome, Walter, Elliot, Floyd and Harry

Elizabeth Cook was born at New Brunswick, Canada, in 1858. In 1869, at the age of eleven years she moved to Cannon Falls, Minn., where she grew to womanhood. Here she taught school for several years and on May 27, 1880, was married to Anthony Mallett at Cannon Falls, Minn. Several years later they came to South Dakota and homesteaded near Andover, S. D. In the year of 1890 with her family moved to Andover, S. D., where they had children, seven sons and two daughters. In 1900 they came to bless this happy home and their home circle was enlarged when Percy Ray, a lad of fifteen, was added to the family.

Mallett leaves to mourn her death six sons, Walter Mallett, Andover, S. D.; Leonard Mallett, Redfield, S. D.; Floyd Mallett, Chicago, Ill.; Harry Mallett of Minneapolis, Minn.; Jerome and Elliot of Andover, S. D.; two daughters, Mrs. Otto Mallett of Groton, and Mrs. Reuben Mallett of Los Angeles, Calif.; one daughter, Ada Cook of Chatfield, Minn.; and one brother, Stuart Cook, Cannon Falls, Minn.; also ten grandchildren and eight great grand-

Mallett was a member of the Baptist church, the W. C. T. U., Women's Missionary Society, and the Thimble

Mallett, as she was called, lived uprightly with God, and was a kind, loving and genial woman and was deeply loved by all who knew her. Her high ideals inspired for her the fellowship of the church. Deep sympathy is extended to the family and relatives in the loss of a loved one.